Dear Mr. Flynn, - Miss B. Longley, Registrar & Librarian, Upper Canada Village suggested that you might be of aid in research in the area of Fredericksburg. For some time I have been working on the Gurnslee family descendants. My great grandfather was Cornelius Gurnslee from New York Province who married Isabella Embury, daughter of Andrew Embury U.E.L., in Fredericksburg in March 1810.

An older brother of Cornelius, named Joseph Gurnslee, married Nancy Clarke, daughter of Capt. Oliver Clarke U.E.L. in 1806 at Fredericksburg.

Joseph Gurnslee is mentioned in a petition submitted by the inhabitants of the counties of Lennox & Addington for a survey of the village of Fredericksburg Nov. 14, 1813 (Ottawa Archives).

Joseph Gurnslee also is mentioned in a Masonic Book by John Ross Robertson as being the 1st Worshipful Master of a Lodge in South Fredericksburg in 1814.

Joseph Gurnslee's name appears on a petition dated Dec 31, 1842 for 100 acres of land as payment for military services during the war of 1812. - (Ottawa Archives). He was in the militia in the service of Capt. Thompson's ^{Upper} Horse Guards as certified by Samuel Dickson Col. - Company 1st Lennox Militia.

This petition was not granted from the Adj. General's Office Kingston, 31 Dec 1842, the reason given is:

"The name of the petitioner has not been returned to the Capt. as having served in Capt. Thompson's Troop of Cavalry"
Richard Ballou

It looks as if Joseph was out of luck because his name hadn't been properly entered, because I am sure Col. Sam Barlow would not certify that Joseph Gunsalus was in Capt. Thompson's Troopers if he had not served.

There is a persistent story in the Gunsalus family that Joseph Gunsalus lost a leg in the war of 1812 and wore a wooden one. When he was an elderly man, he used to unstrap it, sit on the barn floor and thresh beans with it.

When at Munnys Taver Museum, Kingston in 1966, I noted a wooden leg on display. There are stories that this leg did belong to Joseph Gunsalus, but I saw nothing to signify same, on the descriptive label.

Joseph Gunsalus born May 31, 1778 (Dutch Reformed church Records Albany N. York)

died Oct 13, 1865

Nancy Clark, his wife, born May 27, 1784

died Oct 27, 1855

Both are buried at Sandhurst Anglican Cemetery Fredericksburgh along with Nancy's mother who was "the consort of Capt. Alex. Clark," and other relatives. 9 stones in all.

The marriage of Joseph & Nancy Gunsalus is recorded in McDowell marriage register, Fredericksburg but I found no record of the birth or baptism of their children.

They had a son Joseph E. Gunsalus. In the 1861 Census of Fredericksburgh Twp (Ottawa Archives), father & son lived together. Joseph, the father is listed as 85 years old.

They also had a son Charles Gumsolus. ^(Chicago of N. p. 1000)
 The 1871 Census
 shows Gumsolus. Charles - 52 yrs, Presbyterian, Spanish, unknown
 Gentleman
 " Mary: 43 yrs.

From the Douglas Library. Queens University the assistant archivist tells me that Charles Gumsolus was a note-booker. His son was Kenneth M. Gumsolus who graduated from Queens as a physician in 1871 and practiced and died in Detroit. Died Mar 24, 1916.
 From the "Haugh" scrapbook Vol. 1, page 50, at Dr. Douglas's at Bath, I found a notice of his death, and concluded that his mother, the Mary above in the 1871 census, was a "Haugh."

My problem has been how to find the births or baptisms of the children of Joseph & Nancy so that I knew how many children there were and their order of birth, so that I might follow them through.

Last summer in August, attended the World Conference on Records at Salt Lake City and in a History of the County of Tarrant & Arlington by Walter S. Herrington H.C. - publ by MacMillan in 1913, (in the S.L. City Library) - page 257 He writes re reminiscences of Napier -

" In one part John Blawett had a general store, over which he lived, in the other half was Joseph Gumsolus' saloon"

Everywhere I write the answer comes back - "We find no name Gunsolus".

I am a member of the United Empire Loyalist Assoc. of Canada, Vancouver branch, through my great grandmother Isabella Embury Gunsolus. As my mother Annette, Victoria "Gunsolus" Sterns will be 100 years old on May 19, 1970 at Parkwood Hospital, London, Ontario, we are planning a special event for her and I will be in London and on to the Toronto Archives for more research in May.

If you have any material available for research or any suggestions as to where to endeavour to solve the Joseph Gunsolus lineage I would very much appreciate your advice and assistance.

Yours truly,

Dear Mrs. Douglas:

Thank you for your long and interesting letter of March 12th concerning your quest into the Gunsolus family.

Mr. H.C. Barleigh of Bath, Ont.
is the foremost authority in this part of Canada
on the United Empire Loyalists and their descendants.
As he is an important member of our Society I am taking the liberty of forwarding your letter to him and I hope that he will be able to give you some information. Certainly if he cannot do so I am afraid that I know of no other source to investigate.

May I congratulate you on the thoroughness of the work that you have already accomplished.

Dear Col. Burleigh,-

Last November, I received a letter from Stuart, Florida over the signature of John M. Gunsolus, M. D., seeking information on the Gunsolus name, etc. His hobby is to trace down the origin of the name. To date he informs me that he is back to 1683 in the U.S.A. with the the name originating from Emmanuel Gonzales apparently a Spaniard.

In particular he is seeking information on the family of Joseph Gunsolus. He has informed me of two books published on Prince Edward County that he thinks would be helpful in checking. They are: 1. Merrill's Picturesque Prince Edward County, and the Illustrated Atlas of the Counties of Hastings and Prince Edward. This Dr. Gunsolus, thinks these would be helpful in seeking information.

A few years ago, we drove into the Church yard at the little Anglican Church east of Adolphustown, I believe Sandhurst is the name, to locate 4 or 5 tombstones bearing the name Gunsolus, that we had been told were there. We located them without difficulty and Joseph Gunsolus' name appears on them.

Also, I have been intrigued to see in the Masonic History written by John Ross Robertson, that Joseph Gunsolus was the first W. M. of a Lodge formed in south Fredericksburgh in 1814. From information I have it appears that Connellius and Josheph Gunsolus migrated from New York State.

This Dr. Gunsolus has written to me at great length with much interesting information on our name, but I shall not burden you at this time. I will appreciate if you will be kind enough to inform me if you can be of help to me in getting information about the Gunsolus name. Thanking you. I remain,

L. school house has long since passed away by fire, & the buttment stones are still to be seen where it stood, on the property now owned by Frederick Memberg, of this place, and about 100 yards east of on the road side of the U. E. L. Memorial Anglican church in the village of Adolphustown. Mrs. Sunsoles, on the last day of February last (1907), gave Mr. Memberg her recollections of the school house, the teachers, the attendants, who came here from Kingston, Ernesttown, & a wide range from here, with the names of many of the scholars, for the Historic Society of Lennox & Addington, at Napanok, & the same has been forwarded to the Secretary, Mr. Clarence Warner, & the receipt of it has been acknowledged by him. She signed her name with a steady hand, and her mind was as clear as ever.

Died April 21, (1908).

Dr Burleigh-

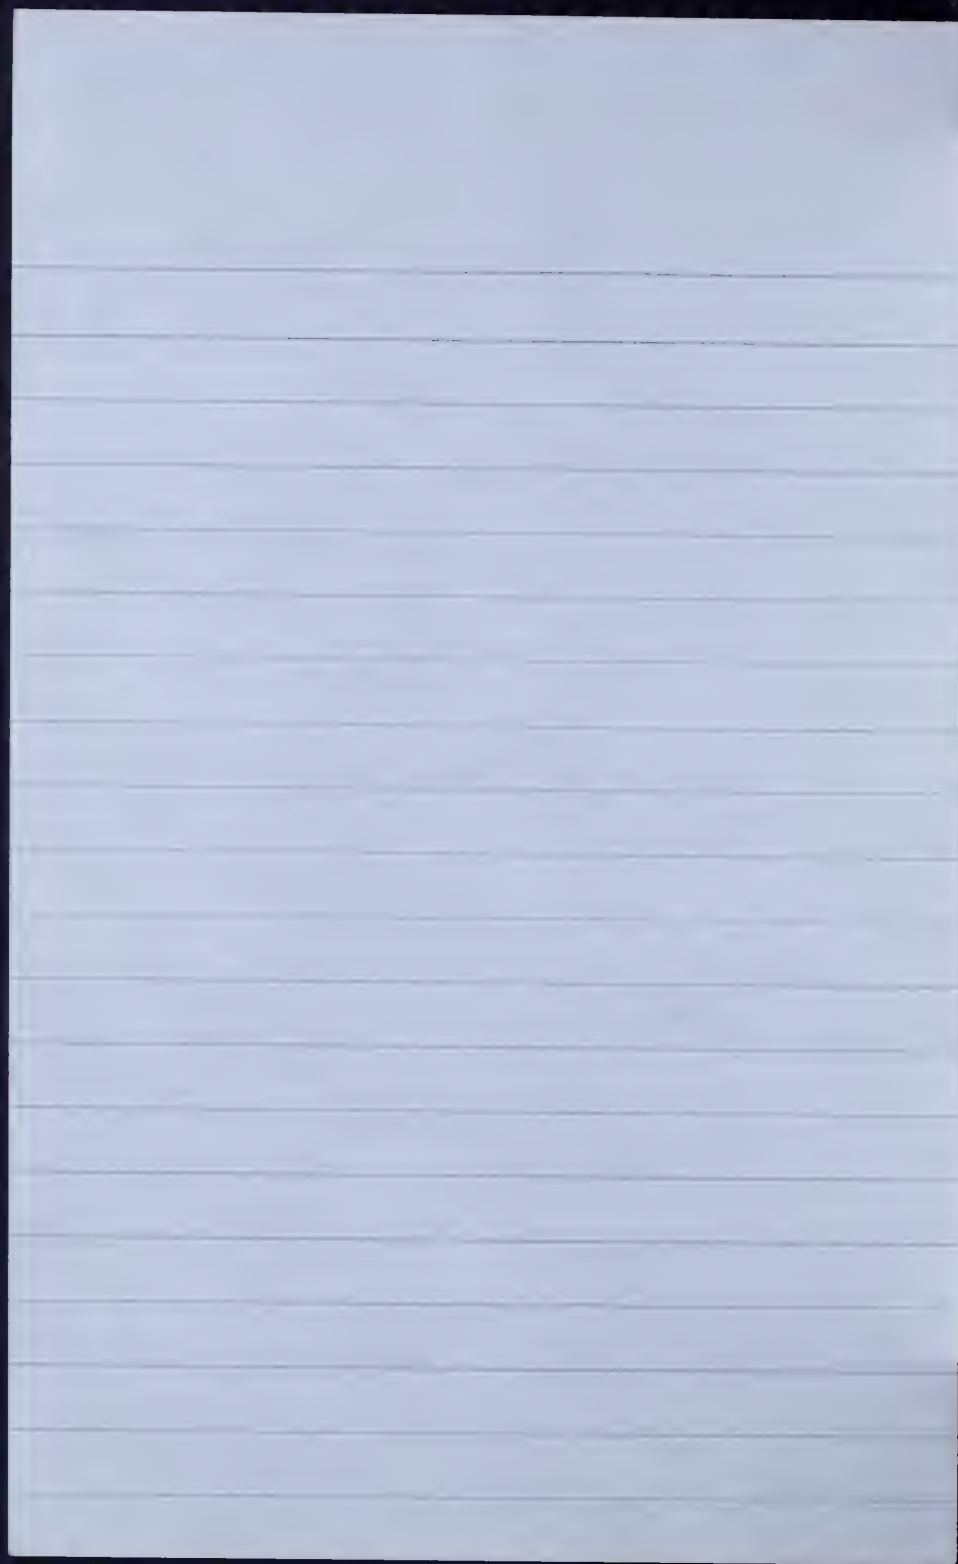

Sorry —

I was away for two weeks Holiday
and forgot all about you and the Consaul's. This is all I have in my Cemetery records and Allan Consaul's family record is on what Mrs W. has on some of the Tice
family and she said to tell you she had seen quite a number of that name in she thinks Stockdale or Frankford Cem

Dear Mr. Burleigh:

Please forgive me for being so tardy in answering your letter. I am indeed the one who came to see you seeking information about the Cousart
family - but the young boy
with my husband and daughter and me was not our grandson. He is an

several evenings compiling a rough chart of the line of descent, using some of the names you gave us, and some we had. We hope to send some of the facts
to Dr. Gonzales in Florida who started us looking.

I hope this information
is of some use to you,
and I will be glad to have it back when you
are through with it.
I should like to hear from adopted son whom we have had for only two years; and we have been caught up

in proceedings to obtain another boy to be his brother, which is part of the reason for the delay
in replying to you.

I am forwarding the information which I had
with me when we ~~were~~ visited you. Since our talk my husband has spent

you again - perhaps some time we might repeat
the visit which we have enjoyed so much. In the meantime, I remain

Yours sincerely

Eden Oswald Allen

Query C-8873 - GUNSOLUS-HART. 16 Sept. 1963.

Data asked of John Gunsolus and of his wife (believed she was a Hart). He was born in N.Y. state about 1810; had son John Mathew, born N.Y. state 28 Aug. 1837, died in Minnesota aged 75; married in Wisconsin 1856, Elizabeth Yeaton, born near Janesville, Wisc., 11 April 1839, died in Minnesota age 70 (daughter of William Yeaton, born 1812 and wife Sarah Hart, born 1813).

A John Gunsolus was living in Schenectady, N.Y. about 1770, and in New Amsterdam earlier. Correspondence invited with anyone having information on Gunsolus family. M.M.D.

Reply 18 Nov. 1963. GUNSOLUS.

Although there were and are families named variously Gunsolus, Gonzalez, Consaul, etc. in and around Schenectady, N.Y., the information on them is scattered and incomplete; know of no organized genealogical study of them. The basic starting reference is Pearson: First Settlers of Schenectady. This is based largely on records of Dutch Reformed Church of Schenectady and has little after 1800. There were a number named John, or Johannes, in the 18th Century, their relationship not always clear, but certain characteristic names are almost proof of their descent from a common ancestor, traditionally of Spanish origin.

Emanuel Consaul, living in or near Schenectady as early as 1684. It is fairly certain the families listed below are descended from him, with the eldest heads of families perhaps his grandchildren.

Johannes Consaulus "of Nistigoune" married at Albany, Apr. 20, 1764, Machtelt, daughter of Johannes Heemstraet. Children were:

1. Johannes, baptized Schenectady Nov. 5, 1767, married Viney (Savinia?) Manning.
2. Sarah, baptized Albany Nov. 3, 1765, married Hendrick J. Vrooman.

1. The first part of the paper discusses the importance of understanding the social context of the research. It emphasizes that researchers must be aware of the cultural, historical, and political factors that may influence the results of their studies. This is particularly true in the case of qualitative research, where the researcher's own beliefs and values can play a significant role in the interpretation of the data.

2. The second part of the paper focuses on the methodological issues involved in conducting research in this area. It discusses the challenges of selecting appropriate samples, developing valid and reliable measures, and ensuring the integrity of the research process. The author argues that a combination of qualitative and quantitative methods is often the most effective way to address these challenges.

3. The third part of the paper presents the findings of the research. It describes the patterns and trends that emerged from the data and discusses their implications for theory and practice. The author concludes that the research has provided valuable insights into the social context of the phenomenon being studied and has identified areas for further research.

4. Finally, the paper includes a section on the limitations of the study and suggestions for future research. The author acknowledges that the study has some limitations, such as the relatively small sample size and the potential for bias in the data collection process. However, the author believes that the findings are still valuable and that the study has contributed to the understanding of the social context of the research.
